Austerity and Revolt
Werner Bonefeld and John Holloway, Special Issue Editors

Commune, Movement, Negation: Notes from Tomorrow 213
Werner Bonefeld and John Holloway

Austerity and Its Antitheses: Practical Negations of Capitalist Legitimacy 217
Craig Browne and Simon Susen

From Commoning to Debt: Financialization, Microcredit, and the Changing Architecture of Capital Accumulation 231
Silvia Federici

Goals without Demands: The New Movements for Real Democracy 245
Marina Sitrin

Beyond the “Capacity to Veto”: Reflections from Latin America on the Production and Reproduction of the Common 259
Raquel Gutiérrez-Aguilar

The Idea of Councils Runs through Latin America 271
Alberto Bonnet

Communities of Crisis: Ruptures as Common Ties during Class Struggles in Greece, 2011–2012 285
Katerina Nasioka

Social Revolution and the Commons 299
Massimo De Angelis

Lost in Space? Lefebvre, Harvey, and the Spatiality of Negation 313
Greig Charnock

Detotalization and Subject: On Zapatismo and Critical Theory 327
Sergio Tischler
The South Atlantic Quarterly • Spring 2014

Recognition Contradicted  339
Richard Gunn and Adrian Wilding

Clash of Temporalities: Capital, Democracy, and Squares  353
Massimiliano Tomba

Too Bad for the Facts: Confronting Value with Hope
(Notes on the Argentine Uprising of 2001)  367
Ana C. Dinerstein

AGAINST the DAY

A Region of Resistance: Mass Protests in Egypt and Turkey
Amy Austin Holmes, Editor

On Military Coups and Mad Utopias  380
Amy Austin Holmes

Civil Society, NGOs, and Egypt’s 2011 Popular Uprising  396
Joel Beinin

The End of Reciprocity:
The Muslim Brotherhood and the Security Sector  407
Karim Medhat Ennarah

The Long Summer of Turkey:
The Gezi Uprising and Its Historical Roots  419
Erdem Yörük

The Politics of the Gezi Park Resistance:
Against Memory and Identity  427
Bülent Eken

Notes on Contributors  437

Erratum  441