Getting Back the Land: Anticolonial and Indigenous Strategies of Reclamation

Shiri Pasternak and Dayna Nadine Scott, Special Issue Editors

Introduction: Getting Back the Land  205
Shiri Pasternak and Dayna Nadine Scott

Ǧvil̓ás and Snəwayał: Indigenous Laws, Economies, and Relationships with Place Speaking to State Extractions  215
Deborah Curran, Eugene Kung, and Ġáġvi Marilyn Slett

Beyond Wiindigo Infrastructure  243
Winona LaDuke and Deborah Cowen

Extraction Contracting: The Struggle for Control of Indigenous Lands  269
Dayna Nadine Scott

Assimilation and Partition: How Settler Colonialism and Racial Capitalism Co-produce the Borders of Indigenous Economies  301
Shiri Pasternak

“Canada Has a Pipeline Problem”: Valuation and Vulnerability of Extractive Infrastructure  325
Kylie Benton-Connell and D. T. Cochrane

Beyond Contempt: Injunctions, Land Defense, and the Criminalization of Indigenous Resistance  353
Irina Ceric

Decolonizing Decolonization: An Indigenous Feminist Perspective on the Recognition and Rights Framework  371
Sherry Pictou
AGAINST the DAY

The Rise of Precarious Workers
Todd Wolfson, Editor

Introduction: Class Struggle before Class  394
Todd Wolfson

Platform Workers of the World, Unite!
The Emergence of the Transnational Federation of Couriers  401
Callum Cant and Clara Mogno

A History of Uber Organizing in the UK  412
Yaseen Aslam and Jamie Woodcock

Magic Wands and Monkey Brains:
Is Labor ready to Lead Society in the New Struggle over Data?  422
Biju Mathew

Notes on Contributors  432