Politics & Society

11 Who’s Afraid of Identity Politics? by DAN MCKANAN
From the women’s movement to the Black Power movement, identity-based organizing has transformed our society. Does identity politics really deserve its bad rap?

13 The Terms on Which Jews and Muslims Join Western Civilization by SANDER L. GILMAN
Jews have gained acceptance in part through their use of self-mocking humor. Now some Muslims have launched a sitcom to counter the prejudice they face.

Rethinking Religion

14 The Future of World Religion: Four Scenarios, One Dream by JORGE N. FERRER
Will a single religion arise? Will syncretism proliferate? Will the world develop shared interspiritual wisdom? Let’s find a way to energize interfaith dialogue without losing the beauty of religious diversity.
